AS WE SEE IT

By GEORGE JACKSON

For nearly two thousand years we have celebrated Christmas as a day of good cheer and good fellowship, as a day for reverence and thanks. During this period of time millions of people of the world have tried to live all year according to the ideals of the Man whose birthday we celebrate.

There has probably been no greater time of crisis, for Americans in particular or mankind in general, as the time in which we are now living. The direction in which events turn in the near future could possibly determine whether we will celebrate in the future Christmas Day or the anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution as a date of the birth of the ideals by which we live.

It is no doubt true that as individuals we can do very little in the making of the decisions which will determine our future, but the American way of life has arisen from the collection of the ideas of individuals, and it is very probable that our future will be determined by the collection of individuals' ideas.

Now is the time for us to rededicate ourselves to the causes by which we have chosen to live, and by which we and our posterity would continue to live. If we make the right decisions, and support our decisions, our way of life will continue; if we make the right decisions and fail to support them, we will see our way of life disappear.

New Class Announced; Schedule Ready Soon

Possibility of a course in parliamentary procedure was announced by President John B. Lemos recently. Mr. Lemos said that if 15 students sign up for the course, it will be offered next semester.

This course would deal with the rules governing the formal meeting and would be of benefit to many students, both in campus organizations and civic groups.

Signups for the course will be taken in the main office.

Schedule of classes for the spring semester will be available in the main office following Christmas vacation. President John B. Lemos announced. The schedules will be printed during the vacation and will make it possible for students to plan their programs before the actual time for registration.

"Redemption Play" Runs Twice More

Hartnell College Players' production, "The Redemption Play," was presented to an appreciative audience at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the College Little Theater.

In the players' staging of the show, extremely simple settings and lightings were used. The sets hardly more than suggested the backgrounds, while the lighting, very effectively done, was done entirely with four spotlights.

Each scene was simple, yet highly dramatic. Each act ended on a meditative key, filling the heart and imagination of the spectator. At the end of the first scene it was the soft music of the angels' singing at the scene of the Nativity.

Each scene, bit of action, and dialogue is based on Biblical research and authority, with the exception of the visit of the Magi, which, for dramatic sequence, occurs in the play on the night of the Birth.

A reading of the theme of each scene precedes the action of the scene. A reader, Miss Phyllis Williams, is at one side of the stage, and she reads a portion of scripture immediately before its presentation on the stage. This scripture reading adds to the spiritual

Christmas Play Free to Students

Commission approval was given Friday to a plan submitted by Mr. Hal Ulrici to admit free Hartnell College student body card-holders to the Christmas play. Meeting in a special session the group unanimously voted to back the plan.

In suggesting the new policy, Mr. Ulrici, head of the Hartnell drama department, put forth the view that this action might increase student interest in dramatic productions and possibly lead to increased support by students.

Cliff Herman was named to head a committee which will investigate the need for more public address loudspeakers in the men's gymnasium. For some time complaints have been received concerning the poor facilities for programs in the gym, and this move was made in an attempt to better the situation.

"The Redemption Play" is a traditional drama, such as have been given through the centuries in all countries of the world. These plays served as an aid to the church in the spreading of religion, and were an inspiration to many.

The main idea of the Christmas play and plays of this type is to inspire the element of reverence, reverence for old age, the old-fashioned reverence for parents, reverence for the law and the rights of

EIGHT TEAMS WILL TAKE PART IN THREE-DAY, ELEVEN-GAME EVENT

Play in the Small Colleges' Basketball Tournament will open Monday afternoon at 2:00 when Yuba meets Taft in the first game of the tourney. Eight junior colleges will take part in the affair, with Hartnell College acting as host. Junior colleges sending teams will be Taft, Napa, Contra Costa, Fresno, San Luis Obispo, Monterey, Yuba, and Hartnell. Hartnell will play San Luis Obispo in Monday night's second game.

Bid Sales For Winter Ball Open After Vacation

Bids for the annual Winter Ball will go on sale at $7 per couple on January 8. According to an announcement by Marge Mathers, chairman of the affair, the formal dance will be held at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club on January 19.

In order to secure the present site, Miss Mathers had to find a club member to act as a sponsor for the ball, and Mr. Henry Scovil agreed to serve in that capacity.

Although an orchestra had not been secured, Miss Mathers said that Don Dean's Modernaires from San Jose had been contacted and would probably play at the dance.

All committees for the event have been set up and have begun their work, and Miss Mathers has stated she expects this Winter Ball to be one of the finest ever held.

Everett Dean

Trophies will be awarded by Coach Everett Dean of Stanford University to the top four teams in the tournament, and belt buckles will be presented to the members of the winning team. Gold basketballs will go to the members of the all-tournament team, which will be selected by eight officials who will referee the games.

To the outstanding Hartnell player will go a trophy, and the winner of a free throw contest, which will have one entrant from each team, will also receive a trophy. Trophies and other awards have been donated by Salinas business firms and organizations.

This year's tournament will be the third such affair to be held at Hartnell College. In 1939-40 Hartnell won the tournament by one point on a last-minute basket by Captain "Took" Tainer. In 1940-41 Hartnell lost to Reedley in the finals by one point. The event was cancelled because of the recent world war.

Tickets for the tournament may be obtained at the Hartnell College main office, students $1, and adults, $2. Student body cards will not be honored except for a reduction from the regular admission price.

AIR FORCE TEAM HERE TILL 5 P.M.

Until 5 p.m. a United States Air Force team will interview students interested in a career in the U.S.A.F. Members of the team are Capt. Donald Nelson and Lieut. R. H. Hutchins, and their offices are in Miss Handley's office.

Yesterday the team showed the motion picture, "Flight Plan for the Future," to interested students. The movies featured scenes of training for air force pilots and showed many of the latest types of aircraft.

Letters From Pvt. James Conrado Tells of Korean Battle Conditions

Hardships faced by members of the United States Marine Corps in the battle in Korea were vividly depicted in a letter from Private First Class James Conrado, former Hartnell student, and now with United Nations forces in Korea.

In the letter written December 3, Conrado expressed the belief that the forces there have been let down by officials in Washington, but he said the men fighting there will give the Chinese a fight before they leave.

Conrado was stationed on a tiny airstrip, and his outfit was being forced out of their position by the advancing Chinese Communists. He told of how the enemy were being killed by the thousand but were able to keep charging because of their great number.

A veteran of World War II, Conrado was attending Hartnell College before he was recalled during the past summer. He has been appointed to fill the office of commissioner of public relations for 1950-51 but was unable to fill the post because of the outbreak of hostilities in Korea.

The letter had been written to Conrado's mother, who resides in Santa Cruz, and excerpts of the letter were published in the Santa Cruz Sentinel News on December 10. Following are excerpts from the letter:

"It's fairly warm here. We are all living out of our sea bags. No bathing facilities again and not much heating facilities. The snow froze on the strip and they had to break the fellows out in the middle of the night to spread sand all over the strip. Pretty rough on the pilots. We haven't lost any planes up here yet and we hope we can keep the record clear. . . .

"We have hardly any gas for the planes, no fuel for the stoves, no equipment for operating, no ammunition (2,000 rounds per day, or about one minute's firing), hardly any rockets, no napalm (we

others, and, of course, the spiritual reverence.

In years past, the purpose of these plays was to translate the scripture into everyday language, therefore making it possible for the common man to know the life of Christ.

"The Redemption Play," strictly speaking, is not a Passion play, as it deals more with the little-known facts of the life of Christ. The character of Christ does not speak a line during the entire performance. This makes the character seem more holy, as the silent role is extremely eloquent.

Members of the cast include: Tom Rogers, Virgilius; Stan Lovett, Pontius Pilate; Charlene Gustaveson, Sara; Craig Ulrici, the Child Jesus; Gloria Rosen, Mary; Bonnie Pilliar, Joseph; Helen Wolber, Salome; Barbara Nye, Rachel; William Nye, Bartimas; Phyllis Williams, Dismas; Carla Adams, David; Phyllis Williams, Reader.

Musical interludes were furnished by the Hartnell College Choir, under the direction of Mr. Vahé Asslanian. The music came from off-stage, and fit very well into the scenes.

A minister is present at each performance to offer a short prayer for peace, a fitting finale to the production.

Backstage crew for the production includes: Bonnie Pilliar, stage manager; Barbara Nye, Charlene Gustaveson, Carla Adams, stage crew, Carla Adams, curtain; Helen Wolber, script attendant; Charlene Gustaveson, makeup; Bonnie Pilliar, wardrobe; Betty Cunningham, house manager; Darrell Millsap, cover design; Carla Adams, Helen Wolber, program; Mr. Harold Ulrici, scene design; stagecraft class, scene construction.

2nd All-NCJCC Team

John Piini and Dick Leffingwell were named to the second team of the all-N.C.J.C.C., southern division, team announced by the San Francisco City College publication, The Guardsman. Ev Skrine was named at halfback on the first team, released last week.

Leffingwell, a tackle, played both offense and defense during the season and was a standout in the Hartnell line. He is a sophomore. Piini, a guard, in his first season at Hartnell, played both guard and tackle on the squad. He also kicked conversions for the Panthers.

WSSF Official Visits Campus to Discuss Campaign

Mr. David Levering, World Student Service Fund traveling secretary, was on the Hartnell College campus this week to tell members of the interclub council of his organization and to help organize a drive on the Hartnell campus for W.S.S.F. contributions. He told briefly about his personal experiences while attending a student conference in India during the past summer.

W.S.S.F. is a group, organized in 1937 as the Far Eastern Service Relief Fund, which has for its purpose the relief of students and professors in devastated countries, both in Europe and Asia. Its goal for 1950 is one million dollars which will be used for emergency food, medical aid and housing, and study equipment.

However, in addition to soliciting funds for their work, the group is trying to make students aware of the tragic world situation in which they are involved. It is the belief that all students of the world are linked by their common goal, and that if one student can aid another students, all of the students will benefit.

Levering assisted in organizing a drive at Hartnell College, and plans are moving towards a drive on this campus which will be held here in the not too distant future.

Business Educators Hold Conference At Hartnell

Hartnell College and Salinas Union High School were hosts to a section conference of the California Business Educators' Association last Saturday. Highlighting the all-day confab was an address by Mr. Robert Mercer, director of the local state employment service. Delegates from San Luis Obispo to Santa Cruz were present.

Mercer pointed out the need for better job training in this community. He named services rendered by his office and explained materials used in job analysis and classification.

Roy Huckell, of the California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corporation, and Carvel Johnson, of Spreckels Sugar Corporation, both spoke on personnel policies of their respective companies.

Two tours were taken by the delegates to the conclave; the first at 11 o'clock through the Hartnell campus and the second through the A. and M. grounds. Luncheon was served for the delegates at the Santa Lucia Inn.

Coffee and doughnuts were served at the college by Miss Winifred Miller of the home economics department.

FIRST SECTION OF LA REATA TO PRESS

Happy Days are here again!

La Reata Editor Andy Ausonio has released the terrific information that the first 39 pages of the 112-page 1951 yearbook will be ready for the printer by January 2.

The pages which will be completed at that time include the introduction, faculty, and the freshman and sophomore class sections.

Editor Ausonio said that yearbooks are still on sale and may be obtained in Room 9. He reminded students who are dropping out of school, or completing work at the end of the semester, to be sure to pay the balance due on their pledge cards. Books will be mailed to these students when they are issued in May.

Interclub Council Decides To Assist Foreign Students Tour

Members of the interclub council moved to assist a group of foreign students who will pass through Salinas in February. The students will be a part of a tour sponsored by a Southern California concern to acquaint foreign students in California with the state.

Major tasks facing the council will be the arrangement of housing and meals for the group and the scheduling of a tour for them to follow while they are in this area.

By unanimous vote, the council decided to sponsor a drive for funds for the World Student Service Fund on this campus. In connection with this drive, Dr. B. L. Borough spoke to the group and told them of the great task performed by this organization on behalf of students in foreign countries.

Helen Wolber was named chairman of a committee which will handle the drive at Hartnell College. Named to this committee were Bill Bell, Beverly Carlson, Jerry Skillicorn, Bob Burton, Gayle Caskey and George Jackson.

Rev. Geddes Is Canterbury Guest

With the Rev. Allen Geddes as the special speaker, the Canterbury Club held its best attended meeting of the year last week. Another special presented at the meeting was apple and mince pie, and coffee prepared by the girls of the club.

Club members elected Beverly Carlsen representative to the interclub council. President Jerry Skillicorn was the former club representative, but when he was elected president of the council, he automatically lost his vote in council affairs.

Advisor to Canterbury Club, Dr. B. L. Borough, announced that a request was made of all members to contribute books which may be sent to the University of the Philippines with additional packages. Club members expressed a willingness to contribute to the World Student Service Fund.

UGC Holds Christmas Party

The annual U.G.C. Christmas party that was held yesterday was told in a television story theme with Bob Peavy as master of ceremonies.

Honored guests of the party were Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus who passed around humorous presents to both students and faculty, while entertainment was provided by the Hartnell band and choir under the direction of Mr. Lorell McCann and Mr. Vahé Aslanian, respectively.

With Bob Azcona as accompanist, Dr. B. L. Borough led the community singing in which everyone present participated. The Six Angels provided the serious entertainment with their singing of Christmas carols.

Colhecon Holds Formal Installation

The formal installation of officers of the Colhecon Club was held during the annual Christmas party of the club.

The new officers are Wanda Beckham, president; Nancy Ferris, vice-president; Beverly Silva, secretary-treasurer; and Diane Amyx, social activities director.

Refreshments that had been prepared by the foods class were served by them. They were prepared under the direction of Miss Winifred Miller.

During the program Beverly Silva and Anita Churban sang Christmas carols. Those who attended the party also listened to the recording of the well-known story of the Little Angel by Loretta Young.

Miss Mildred Novotny gave a demonstration of the wrapping of a Christmas package so that the girls would know how to make a lovely gift wrapper.

Newman Schedules Gala Yule Event

Christmas will be in the air on the night of December 19 when the Newman Club will hold its last meeting of the year at Stofey's Quonset hut.

Everyone is invited, and each person attending is requested to bring a gift to the night meeting and party. The quonset at which the event will be held is located at the corner of Rico and Rossi Streets, which are northwest of the Salinas underpass.

Club Publicist Nancy Bardin also said that the cake sale was a big success, and that the club hopes to sponsor more such activities in the near future.

Over 50 Students Set for Four Days of Skiing

Good snow is expected by the Ski Club for the trip to Donner Pass during Christmas vacation. The following 55 students will motor to Santa Cruz Ski Lodge at Donner for four days of skiing:

Phyllis Butters, Frances Englehorn, Sylvia Tysdal, Greta Jerne, Dorothy Hodge, Ada Bassi, Joan Bode, Dolores Settrini, Peggy Manely, Margaret E. Lowery, Carla Adams, Betty Cunningham, Beverly Krikac, Kathleen Jennings, Pat Temple, Barbara Farr, Jackie Jury, Nancy Bardin, Beverly Heple.

Carolyn Rattan, Charlene Gustaveson, Darlene Vaughn, Carol Stormont, Miss Luella Wiens, Farrell Moore, Ken Cook, Frank Ichishita, Al Hull, Guido Gysler, Tom Mill, George Malone, Dick McClellan, Lutz Graf zu Muenster, Dale Swire, Cliff King, Ted Dennis, Ray Welch, Rodger Jeska, Del Howe, Dick McCormick, Rogerlee Lanning, Ray White, Jr., Elvin Juhl, Robert Juhler, Floyd Kubik.

Al Janes, John Miggins, Keith Peabody, Mervin Feirerra, Winston Moore, Remo Ottone, Art Hedges, Ray Handley, J. J. Irvine, and Dean Davidson.

Hartnell Faculty Attend Meeting

Two Hartnell College instructors, Mr. Karl Bengston and Mr. Stuart Dufour, attended the State Council of Education meeting in Los Angeles last Friday and Saturday. The state council represents the statewide membership of teachers in the California Teachers' Association.

Mr. Bengston is secretary of the Central Coast section of C.T.A., while Mr. Dufour represents teachers in Monterey, Santa Cruz, San Luis Obispo, and San Benito counties.

At the two-day session the organization approved many proposals to be initiated as legislation at the next session of the state legislature.

CAMPU SOLOGY

By PAUL PARSONS

A couple of hours after you read this you'll be off to enjoy the Christmas holidays. (As far as that goes, a few MINUTES after you read this you'll enjoy ANYTHING.) But before you bid adieu to Hartnell for a couple of weeks to go off skiing, Christmas shopping, or whatever you do during Christmas vacation, let's take a look around our dear old campus.

Here's one that was passed on to me the other day. Seems that an instructor was giving his class an oral quiz and picked on some unfortunate specimen for his most difficult question.

"Who signed the Magna Carta?" he asked. There was no answer from the fellow in the back of the room.

"Where were you on Friday?" asked the prof. "How do you expect to pass this course if you never come to class?"

"I don't know," he replied, "I only came in here to fix the radiator."

We often find that an instructor slips up and is late for class. Well, here's a little quip for those tardy fellows. "A professor who is ten minutes late for class is rare; in fact, he's in a class by himself."

Let's get down to more academic things. Bob Childs, a French student, was in a restaurant the other evening talking to a French-speaking waiter. Bob was heard to say, "Garçon, consommé bouillon, hors d'oeuvres fricassée poulet, pommes de terre, demitasse, des glaces, and tell dat mug in the corner to keep his paws offa me goil."

Some of you may have wondered who those white-clad girls are who prepare those delectable tidbits that we so ravenously devour in the caf each noon. Well, for those who don't know here's a list of their names. And for those who may think they are novices at the game I'll also tell how long they have been here.

First, we have the Simon Legree of the crew — that is, Effie, the "general," Freyer. She has been with us for four years. Next is the head cook, Dorothy Jones, who is here for the first time this year. Then comes Gladys Jones, who is here for her second year, and Ruby Clark, who has been here for three years. And last we have Vi Ulbrick and Mildred Rico who have each been here for one year.

Everybody should be feeling at least a little of the Christmas spirit after seeing the beautiful Christmas tree in the main hall. The U.G.C. put up the tree. Miss Handley directed the operation while Beverly Krikac, Tiny Rogers, Joan Jensen, Shanna Powell, and Mary Burke did the actual decorating.

And so, kiddies (that sounds Christmasy, doesn't it?) I'll wind this thing up with a great big MERRY CHRISTMAS to all of you.

Panthers Draw San Luis In Monday Tourney Play

After resting Saturday and Sunday from their trip to Sacramento and Chico the Hartnell Panthers will face the San Luis Obispo Vikings Monday in the final game of the opening day of the Hartnell Small Colleges' Basketball Tournament.

Game time will be approximately 8:45. Hartnell should be at full strength for the contest, and will probably take the floor with Bob Ballard and Bill Menees at the guard spots, Bob Steinbach and Dick deLorimier at forwards, and Fred Willson at center.

Hartnell is highly favored to knock off the team they defeated last week, 60-42, and they should go on to the finals if they play the ball they are capable of playing. Rated next to Hartnell in the tourney is the entry from Napa Junior College.

Coach Ed Adams, tournament director, has expressed the hope that Hartnell College will be able to make the tournament an annual affair. The tournament was held twice before the war and then was interrupted by World War II.

Tickets which will admit the bearer to the reserved section for the entire tournament are on sale in the main office of the college and at the four sportings goods stores in Salinas. Regular prices will prevail for all games.

Noon League Basketball Gets Under Way

Noon intramural basketball play started last Monday and so far three thrilling games have taken place. The league consists of eight teams: the Termites, the Cream Puffs, Da Boys, the Gassers, the Hog Shots, the Wheaties, the Hawaiians, and the Union Jacks.

Rules for the noon play, established by Coach Jess Regli limit each man to four fouls, and give two points for each win, one point for ties, and no points for losses. Medals will be given to the members of the first and second place teams at the end of the season.

March 19 marks the end of the intramural loop, and at that time, if a tie exists, one game will be played to determine the championship. A grand total of 54 games will be played in the tournament this year. There is no admission charge for students and they are urged to attend the games.

Same Old Story - - Harts Split Weekend

Giants Win Again Harts Win 60-42

High tempers soared over the breaking point last Friday as the Hartnell Panthers clashed with the College of Sequoias Giants. Following the game, Coach Ed Adams announced that he had had enough and would henceforth delete the Visalia team from his schedules.

POOR OFFICIALS

Hartnell suffered their second defeat in as many starts with the Giants. It was a slow game with much confusion caused by some of the calls of the officials. Final score of the encounter found the Panthers on the low end of a 50-35 count.

Opening fast and scoring many times in the opening quarter, the Panthers went to an early lead over the Giants. Then the Giants went into a tight shell and slowed the action down to a standstill. When the Hartnell team tried to counterstall to draw out their opponents' defense they were forced to yield the possession of the ball when the officials penalized them for traveling and "failing to give the fans their money's worth."

From the first half on, the situation was completely hopeless. Coach Adams pointed out that this was not a new experience for the Hartnell team, but that they had met the same situation in Visalia last year.

GONZALES LEADS SCORERS

Monte Gonzales, Giant guard, again proved his skill by leading the scoring column with a total of 24 points. Top man for the Panthers was Forward Bob Steinbach with 11 points, closely followed by Bill Menees with 10.

A sorely felt loss was that of Fred Willson, the high-scoring center of Hartnell, who was home in bed with a strep throat. Glen Albaugh did well, though, in filling the spot.

Saturday night the Panthers cooled their tempers by taking it out on the San Luis Obispo Vikings. Rolling along with all ease, they stamped out a fast offense to lead all the way. Final score for the contest found the Panthers with an 18-point margin, 60-42.

DeLORIMIER LEADS

Top three scorers for the Hartnell aggregation were Dick deLorimier with 12 points, Art Brickwedel with 10, and Glen Albaugh, filling in for Fred Willson, with 9. The entire team saw considerable action in Saturday's game.

Coach Adams reported that the opening half of the ball game found the Panthers a little slow in working their fast break, and the passing was delayed a little too long to be effective. The difficulty was ironed out in the halftime rest period, and the Harts came back to build up their lead.

BROTHER VS. BROTHER

Interesting clash in the game pitted two brothers, John and Bob Ballard, against each other. Brother John played guard for the Vikings and managed to tally two points for the hometown cause. Brother Bob, playing guard for the Panthers, gathered a total of six points, sinking two field goals and two free throws.

Monday, December 18, the two brothers will again face each other on the basketball court. Hartnell and San Luis Obispo have been drawn to play in the final game Monday night.

Officials for Saturday's game were Bob Mont and Howie O'Daniels, members of the Cal Poly faculty.
